INSTRUCTOR IS TO EMPOWER YOU TO SUSTAINABLY ACHIEVE YOUR FITNESS GOALS.

Training Philosophy:

My focus is on engaging clients in partnerships to define and achieve their wellness goals in the context of the mobility, stability, and strength that they desire. I think about training as Movement Nutrition and employ an integrative and holistic approach to wellness that includes assessment and treatment of joint mobility and alignment, soft tissue condition and alignment, and physical training to enhance stability and strength. I strive to develop personalized training programs that both challenge and empower clients and ultimately propel them to achieve and sustain their wellness goals by 1) assessing clients dynamically to identify muscle imbalances and weak links in kinetic chains; and 2) integrating bodywork, including muscle energy techniques, dynamic fascial stretching, myofascial and trigger point releases, and deep tissue and sports massage, with training modalities, including Pilates, TRX, barefoot exercise, and a variety of bodyweight and other weight-bearing/resistance-based movements.
